Jeffrey Cranford Speaker (So. California PGA Champion)

Jeffrey Cranford graduated from Rice University in 1987, where he played on the golf team. Jeffrey has also played PGA Tour, Nike Tour, Nationwide Tour and European Tour events over the last 10 years. As recently as 2000, Jeffrey won the Southern California PGA Championship which allowed him to play in the Buick Open at Torrey Pines, the Los Angeles Open and the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic

Upon graduation, Jeffrey moved to the Palm Springs, Ca. area where he has resided for 17 years. Jeffrey has served at some of the most prestigious clubs in the country, including The Vintage Club in Indian Wells, Ca., the Maroon Creek Club in Aspen, Co. and the La Quinta Hotel Golf Club in La Quinta, Ca.

Jeffrey will be sharing some of his experiences on the PGA Tour. He will also share about a major decision he made that has changed the direction of his life. He now has ongoing relationships with several current tour professionals where he serves in a mentoring role.

Jeffrey is actively involved on the board of Linksplayers, a Christian golf media ministry. He helped found The Road to Jerusalem with founder and former President of Promise Keepers Bill McCartney. Jeffrey is married to wife Laura and they have two daughters and another on the way.
